

Red Road November

Whose growing moustaches? Hope everyone has weathered the latest snow storm!! Wow WINTER is here...in the 4th wave and the numbers are rising AGAIN. Thankfully everyone at Red Road is doubly and triply vaccinated. So far so good health wise ...hard to believe we are now 20 months into this pandemic; however, we can gather more than last year this time. We did have some Halloween fun this year, our Director got away weeks before the our Indigenous Veterans for a few days in BC; 2 flood...and we honoured on November 8, 2021.

Indigenized Triple P has been a Saturday hit...look you missed these last sessions.

Our Friends of Bill W and Friends of Lois W Nooners attended. Food is delivered once again. Counselling come first serve basis; as well as by appointment. Beading with Tamlyn is and Stoney classes are in the evening on Tuesday for a couple more late January 2022. Family Futures, one of our spoke partners, will have a Christmas gathering December 14, 2021 with a feeding of the fire...Red Road will have their Christmas gathering December 16, 2021. Watch for posters in the next week. Red Road is also partnering with The learning Centre to provide one on one (or more) casual gatherings for adults to have the opportunity to read and write.

towards January 2022; if have been well and therapy is on a first on Wednesday at 10 am weeks....then again in

Our calendars are posted on the website and facebook...drop by and get involved! Mitakuye Oyasin.

TO ALL THE VETERANS

Thank you for your service!
